The Missouri Election.

That "Border Ruffian wine" must have got into the brains of our cotemporary of the News, and sadly discomposed them, if we may judge by the following paragraph:

In another, and the strict sense, although ROLLINS obtained a victory, it is not an achievement. But as he was barely elected, seeing that at the beginning of the canvass his parties had an ascertained majority of 20,000, the enemies of the Democracy have done nothing—to brag of. With a close fusion of all the odds and ends of the opposition against them, the Democracy have almost entirely overcome the enormous majority that stood against them at the Presidential election,—perhaps they have overcome it, there being still some doubt. Whose right is it to crow?

Rollins and his friends will probably be satisfied with the "victory," and forego the "achievement." How it was ascertained that he had "20,000 majority" to begin with, history does not tell us, and the News need not try, till the effect of the wine wears off. The "enormous majority against the Democratic party" is a myth, Buchanan having nearly 10,000 majority in the State.

The fact is, and perhaps the News, when sober, will find it out, that the election of Rollins is a substantial Emancipation victory, and we affectionately refer that paper to its remark of August 8th:

Col. STEWART's election to the gubernatorial office of Missouri, is an event that gives a thrill of satisfaction to the whole country. His defeat, upon the platform of the National Democracy, at this particular juncture, would have been a national disaster.

And the same article denounced Rollins as a "Black Republican," while the St. Louis democratic papers called him an Abolitionist. His alleged Know Nothingism damaged him thousands of votes among the Germans, while Stewart's notorious former connection with the K. N.'s did not deter the pro-slavery democrats from his support. The Benton democrats, who all supported Buchanan, united with the friends of the Emancipation and free labor policy, of all parties, beat Stewart, elected Rollins—stopped the "thrill of satisfaction" announced by the News—smashed the "platform of the National Democracy"—and set the News to drinking funeral sentiments in Border Ruffian wine. A bad business, truly!

☞ The News copies from the New York Times a part of a letter from Kansas in relation to the election law for the October election in that Territory, got up by the late bogus-democratic pro-slavery Convention. The quoted paragraph reads as follows:

"Among the many baseless rumors which have been industriously circulated among the Free State men is that which asserts that at the elections in October next, none but the registered voters will have the right of franchise. The law contains no such provision. On the contrary, it is expressly declares that every settler shall be entitled to vote who, being a citizen of the United States, was here on the 1st of April last.—Knowing that to be the fact, the great mass of Free State men, if not every one of them, will vote for delegate to Congress and members of the Territorial Legislature. That will be the first occasion in the history of Kansas on which the people have united to exercise the right of franchise under the provisions of the Territorial laws, and will be tantamount to a universal admission of their validity."

We do not recollect to have seen anything of the "baseless rumor" referred to by the Times correspondent; but there is enough in what the election law referred to is admitted to contain, to preclude the Free State men from voting, since it excludes from the right of suff age the whole number of people who have come in this season, and admits only those who "being citizens of the United States," were in the Territory on the 1st of April.

There is a double wrong here: for in the first place, these democratic gentlemen of the Walker Legislature, in their hostility to the German element among the immigrants, which is all free-soil, excludes them from voting unless they are citizens of the U. S.—and, secondly, thousands of substantial American immigrants who have gone in since the 1st of April are excluded.

The paragraph thus parodied by the News also discloses very clearly the game of the Pro-Slavery party, which indeed is well understood by the Free State men of Kansas. The correspondent says that the participation of the Free State men in this election under the Territorial Laws "will be tantamount to a universal admission of their validity." As the writer is known to have gone out to Kansas in Walker's train, and to be an especial pet of the doughty Governor, his exposure of the game does not argue much for his shrewdness.

The Free State men are not to be caught by any such tricks. With the apportionment gerrymandered against them, as we showed yesterday, and a large part of their number excluded from voting, they are not foolish enough to play into the hands of their pro-slavery antagonists. Not at all. The Free State men will hold to their own organization till they can have a fair vote.

The Ocean Telegraph.

While we write, the four American and English steamers are, doubtless, well on their way across the Atlantic with the Ocean Telegraph Cable. They were to start on the 3d or 4th of August from Valentia Bay, Ireland, the Niagara laying the first half, and when her supply of wire gives out the Agamemnon splices on and continues her course westward. If the weather is favorable for the work, and no accident occurs, the fleet ought to reach St. Johns, Newfoundland, by the last of this week or the first of next, and the distance between England and America be annihilated. It will be the crowning triumph of the age.

La Crosse R. R. at Kilbourn City.

The Kilbourn City Union says that the track of the La Crosse R. R. is about completed to that place, and expects the regular trains within a week.

The contractors have certainly pushed along their work with remarkable energy. Now for excursions to the Dells of the Wisconsin!

COME OVER TO THE RIGHT SIDE.—We learn from the Watertown Democrat that the Anzeiger, German paper of that city, has gone into the hands of Mr. CARL SCHURTZ, and forsaken the "Democracy." We shall be glad to see a thorough German Republican paper in Watertown. It is needed.

Opening of the Hori on Railroad to Berlin.

Very much to our regret we were unable to be present at the celebration at Berlin, on Wednesday of the opening of the Milwaukee & Horicon R. R. to that place, 94 miles from this city.—The affair passed off with complete success. The delegation from this city filled six or seven cars, many ladies being among the party. The train passed along smoothly and swiftly, through the rich country intervening, receiving accessions to the party at every station so that more than six hundred hungry guests sat down to the bountiful feast spread out for them by the hospitable people of Berlin, in the large depot of the Company. Berlin had a holi jay—all the places of business were closed, and vast numbers of people from the surrounding country were present to welcome the crowded train, and celebrate with the rest.

After a pleasant time at the tables, occupied in satisfying the wants of the inner man, speech-were the order of the day, and a general interchange of friendly sentiments between the people of Berlin, their guests, and the Company.—A large number returned in the afternoon train, arriving at their homes in good season: many however, remaining to the Ball at night.

The opening of the road to Berlin is duly celebrated; and its receipts will tell the story of its importance; but the Directors do not stop. Right forward they go, towards Stevens Point and the pineries, and we shall have the pleasure of celebrating again at the Wisconsin river, by this time next year, in all probability. Quiet determination—steady perseverance—characterize the management of the affairs of the Company.—They have no quarrels with anybody, but go right forward, building their road at comparatively small cost, yet substantially, and have everybody's good will. They deserve success, and are winning it every day.

SLAVERY AND MORAL PHILOSOPHY.—Dr. Wayland's book on Moral Science has long been a text book in Schools and Colleges, and its publication at once placed the author in the estimation of scientific men on both sides of the Atlantic. Its teachings, however, unfortunately come in conflict with the doctrines inculcated now-a-days by the pro-slavery politicians and divines, and the latter are placing it under ban. The Trustees of the Mississippi College, at Clinton, in that state, have resolved as follows;

That the Trustees of Mississippi College do hereby condemn the teachings of Dr. Wayland, in his "Moral Science," on the subject of African Slavery, and that the Faculty of the College be requested to discontinue the use of Wayland's Moral Science as a text book.

Regarding the action of the Trustees, the Mississippi Baptist says:

The writings of Dr. Wayland are all infected with the taint of Abolitionism. He has done more to corrupt and misguide the popular sentiment than all other Baptist writers in the United States. His teachings are in direct conflict with God's word, upon the subject of natural rights, and those connected with Slavery.

PORT HURON, MICH.—A correspondent of the Detroit Daily Advertiser gives a glowing account of the present condition and prospects of Port Huron.

He says that the city has about 4000 inhabitants—is a port of entry—has large and commodious docks—buildings are going up in large numbers. Port Sarnia, just opposite, and connected by a steam ferry, is the terminus of the Sarnia branch of the Great Western Railway, and Port Huron "is the eastern terminus of the Port Huron & Milwaukee Railway which is to connect at Corunna with the Detroit & Milwaukee Railway. What the Great Western and Central roads are Detroit, so will be the Great Western by the Sarnia branch and the Port Huron and Milwaukee road to Port Huron; a great thoroughfare will be opened through the more central portion of our State, a large portion of the through travel will be drawn this way as the nearest and most direct route to the Great West.

The Sarn ia branch of the Great Western Railway is nearly completed and might soon be in running order; the wharf, warehouses, and depot are about ready for use.

The Port Huron and Milwaukee Company are now at work upon the wharf which is intended to be half a mile or more long, grading for the track and depot and extending their work toward Corunna for several miles, and it is to be hoped that the work will progress with all possible speed."

DOUGLAS IN MADISON.—The Mayor and other admirers of Stephen A. Douglas, attempted to make a great ado over his presence in Madison a few evenings since. Not finding it easy to raise a crowd otherwise, the Mayor had the firebells rung, which called out the firemen with their machines, &c. The Patriot don't like it at all. It says:

The fame and character of Stephen A. Douglas is sufficient to collect a crowd at any time, without such appliances, and it was an insult to him to engage in such fantasies, and besides, those living at a distance from the Capitol—seeing the fire, and hearing the fire bells ringing so lively, imagined, of course that a destructive fire was raging, and from all quarters—full tilt—a crowd came rushing to the scene. We were one of the bamboozled, and after having run a mile, in expectation of assisting to save somebody's property, we had the satisfaction of returning with our finger in our mouth.

THE NEW BEDFORD, MASS., MERCURY.—This paper has reached its fiftieth anniversary, having been established on the 7th of August, 1807, by Benjamin Lindsey, father of the present proprietor. At that time, says the editor, "New Bedford was an isolated and comparatively unknown village of some 3000 or 4000 inhabitants, chiefly devoted to agricultural pursuits, but among whom the spirit of more active enterprise had begun to be awakened in the direction of maritime adventure. Her population now numbers some 22,000, and her name is known and respected not only throughout the greatly extended boundaries of our country, but in every sea, and her commerce extends to every part of the civilized globe." We are glad to hear that the Mercury at this time has a larger number of subscribers than at any other period.

THE EAST INDIA POSSESSIONS.—The cost of governing India has always been a severe one, the East India Company having run in debt four hundred and fifty millions of dollars. The pay of the native troops is about six dollars per month, each man, and that of the European soldiers, about $400 per annum each. It has been necessary heretofore to keep but about forty thousand English soldiers in India, the balance of the force which has kept in check one hundred and fifty millions of natives being made up of Sepoys, to the number of two hundred thousand, officered by Englishmen.

ANOTHER "NATURAL BRIDGE."—The school books for the last half century have contained pictures and descriptions of the natural bridge, over the Cedar Creek, in Virginia, as almost one of the wonders of the world. The Abingdon Virginian has a description of a bridge in Scott Co., which is said far to excel the other in every respect. That paper says:

The Scott bridge extends across the chasm more than twice 80 feet in width, and is 420 feet deep, at the bottom of which flows a much larger and more rapid stream than Cedar creek. The arch of the Scott bridge is not so perfectly formed as that of Cedar creek, but is not less a bridge with a broad wagon road located upon it. The survey for the Cumberland Gap Railroad passes, through the arch of this bridge. It is, perhaps, the wildest and most stupendous curiosity in the United States, and yet it is comparatively unknown."

EXTENSION OF THE TELEGRAPH LINE.—We learn from Mr. Murray, Superintendent of the Wisconsin State Telegraph Line and operator at this point, that the line is to be extended to Prairie du Chien and is expected to be in operation in six weeks or two months. The poles are down as far as the Wisconsin river already, and a commencement will be made in putting up the wire to-morrow.—Madison Journal.

State Teachers Association.

WAUKESHA, Aug. 12, 1857.

This body assembled in this place this morning; about 150 teachers were present at the commencement of the meeting, of which number nearly one-half were females. The Association was called to order by the President, Prof. A. C. SPICER, at 10½ o'clock, when the Rev. Mr. BOYD offered prayer.

The Secretary having read the minutes of the last meeting of the Association, held at Beloit, the President delivered the annual address—subject, "The importance and necessity for Teachers to study well the duties of their calling". The speaker enforced his subject by reference to the other professions—diligent and constant study is essential to success, in the present age, to any professional calling; the mechanic, if he would excel, must gain a reputation, must devote attention to his particular occupation. So should the teacher make his vocation the engrossing subject of study. His business involves interests proportionably higher than that of the artificer or tradesman, as the immortality of the soul is of higher importance than the perfection of material things.

In conclusion, the speaker urged the inculcation of the spirit of Christianity, as the basis of all education.

After the transaction of miscellaneous business the Association adjourned to 3 o'clock P. M.

Several prominent educational men were in attendance from other States. Prof. J. B. TURNER, late of Jacksonville College, Ill., will deliver an address this evening. The citizens of Waukesha are deserving of much praise for their kind attentions to teachers and strangers attending the Association.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The reports of committees appointed at the last meeting of the Association were made. Mr. A. PICKET, from the committee to report a plan for Normal Schools, stated that the committee have visited, or caused inquiries to be made in nearly every part of the State, and have ascertained that not more than one in twenty now engaged in the business of teaching desires to pursue it as a permanent occupation. Also, that not more than one in ten who are now teaching have any taste for the business.

The editorial committee report the condition of the Journal of Education, Vol. I, to be as follows:—

Amount received from various sources for the Journal,	$8,229.55
Amount disbursed on account of the Journal,	2,959.25
Leaving a balance in favor of Vol. I of Journal of	$270.28

Agreeable to previous arrangement, JOHN G. MCMYNN delivered an address on "the condition and needs of Public Schools." The relation which our Public Schools sustain to true liberty and progress was ably treated. He traced the progress of education and its influences in different periods. The hindrances to the success of the Public Schools of the State was the chief matter dwelt upon in the address. The relation which our Public Schools sustain to Academies and Colleges, their mutual interests and dependences upon each other, and the desirableness for their harmonious action, was strongly enforced. Justice cannot be done to this address by any brief abstract; it was listened to with marked attention, and it is doubtless the general wish it may be published.

Convention adjourned to 8 o'clock to-morrow morning. Some 200 teachers were in attendance this P. M.

The Boats on Lake Erie—The Southern Michigan and Northern Indiana R. R.

TOLEDO, Aug. 11, '57.

Messrs. Editors:—The splendid steamer City of Buffalo arrived here to-day at 12 o'clock—precisely noon—having made the passage from Buffalo in 14 hours and a quarter.

On a late trip down, she left Toledo at quarter past one P. M., with the passengers that left Chicago the same morning, by Steam-Boat Express. When the boat arrived at the East Sister (Island) the smoke of the Plymouth Rock was seen about 25 miles ahead. At half past eleven P. M. the City of Buffalo passed the Plymouth Rock, and left her about 10 miles astern when the City entered Buffalo harbor. The passengers by the City left Chicago in the morning at 5:30 o'clock, and by the Rock, the evening before at 3 o'clock, nearly ten hours earlier, and arrived in Buffalo full half an hour behind.

The Michigan Southern Steamboat line is now in full equipment, and will run for the early train at Buffalo—so that passengers leaving Chicago at 5:30 A. M. by the Steamboat express train, will take one of those steamers at Toledo at 10 o'clock P. M.—and the 5:30 A. M. train next morning from Buffalo due in New York the same evening.

There is nothing else to equal this. This line is entirely ahead of competition as to style, character, safety and speed of Boats on these waters. The Boats do not race, they merely keep steady on their way, shortly leaving all sorts of craft astern. This is no puff—but simply fact by an OLD TRAVELER.

MILWAUKEE.—The editor of the Prescott Transcript, who was recently in our city, thus gives his impressions of its prospects;

We had studied, we thought, with some degree of carefulness, the relation of Milwaukee to the Northwest, and its facilities and unsurpassed advantages for sustaining to the vast country Northwest of it the same relation that New York sustains to the States surrounding it. But the full measure of its greatness only occurred to us when we saw into what proportions it had expanded during the few past years, as the result of a trade which is yet in its very infancy. Milwaukee has hitherto enjoyed comparatively little intercourse with the Northwest. And yet the whole country North and West will become tributary to her when the projected railroads are completed. The hands of going to Chicago or elsewhere to find a market for farm products, or to purchase the commodities consumed in the country, will be abandoned just as soon as the superior advantages possessed by Milwaukee become known. If the wholesale trade in Milwaukee for the next five years is in the hands of liberal and far-sighted merchants, who will make known through the press, and by traveling agents, the facts in regard to the superior advantages which that city possesses, we venture to predict that not only will their fortunes be made, but the city itself stand among the foremost of western towns in population, business and wealth.

HAIL STORM IN MICHIGAN.—The Tecumseh, Michigan, Herald gives an account of a second terrible hail storm, which has devastated the fields for miles in that vicinity, doing great damage. The Herald says:

"By this second calamity by storm, many of our farmers have lost their entire crop for the present season, some suffering to the extent of over one thousand dollars, and others less, according to the breadth of land exposed. Many of the cattle were much injured, and some killed. Several of the inhabitants also were much injured by the hail, but we do not learn that any lives were lost. We had, indeed, heard of such hailstones before, but were inclined to think the accounts somewhat fabulous."

ON A BENDER.—The Crawfish River, like Gov. Walker, went on a bender yesterday, tore away the dam at Fall River, and came tearing down the stream, leaping over Mr. Manning's dam in this village and greatly damaging the unfinished part. Whether Rum has been the cause of this mad freak, as is said to be the case with Walker, or whether it was too much cold water without a sprinkling of Whisky, we are unable to say, but presume those opposed to the Maine Law will say it was the latter.—Columbus Republican.

☞ A printer not long ago being "dung" by his sweetheart, went to the office and tried to commit suicide with the "shooting stick," but the thing wouldn't go off. The "devil," wishing to pacify him, told him to peep into the sanctum, where the editor was writing duns to delinquent subscribers. He did so, and the effect was magical. He says that picture of despair reconciled him to his fate.

Death of Richard Winslow.

This venerable and justly estimated man died last evening, (Sunday the 9th,) at about nine and a half o'clock, after a severe and painfull illness. Mr. WINSLOW had exceeded the time allotted to man, by almost a score of years, and would have reached his 88th birth day had he lived until the 6th of September next. About nine years since he fell and injured his thigh, and two or three years since was thrown from his carriage, again severely injuring the same leg. From these injuries he never recovered. His iron constitution, which otherwise would have carried him to his one hundredth year, finally sank under these wounds, and without any other symptoms of disease, life gradually went out.

Mr. WINSLOW was a native of Maine; was born in Falmouth on the 6th of September, 1769, and was a descendant of Kenelm Winslow, brother of Edward Winslow, Governor of Plymouth Colony. He was married in 1812, and having resided for fourteen years at Ocracoke, North Carolina, came to Cleveland, then a small village, in November, 1890. His son, N. C. Winslow, followed, the next month, when forwarding and commission business was commenced in the Winslow warehouse, and a store for grocery business was also established on Superior Lane, in a building still standing just below the Atwater Block. As showing the growth of this city, we may mention the fact, that when Mr. W. purchased his warehouse lot of C. M. Giddings and Capt. Belden, he was strongly urged against making that his location for business, as being so far down the river that business never reach that point. The decreased, therefore, had seen the growth of Cleveland from a population of 970 to sixty thousand. In the spring of 1831, Mr. W's family came on, taking up their abode in the present family residence as soon as it was completed in 1833.

Mr. Winslow was well known all along the chain of Lakes as one of the oldest and most successful commercial men upon these waters. He was in active business here, 23 years, and through all the changes, which have been many and great, during the eventful years making that period, his character for integrity and rigid propriety grew brighter and brighter. His was an impulsive nature,—quick to think, prompt to act,—but these impulses were governed by the most delicate sentiments of honor, and with true refinement of integrity. Richard Winslow was a gentleman of the old school; cordial in his greeting, and sincere in attachment. His benevolent face, and the warm grasp of his hand, will be missed by the young and old who had enjoyed his friendship and who admired his character.

Mr. Winslow, although a deeply interested observer of public affairs, never sought public life. His virtues and merits were exhibited solely in his business, and in his private relations. In all these connections he was as nearly spotless as human nature can attain, and after having only three years since given up active business, he still retained his fresh ness of attachment to his neighbors and friends, which, even in his hour of severe pain, brought a smile to his face and a heartfelt welcome by his arm chair.

Mr. Winslow attained an abundance of wealth, well earned by his industry and probity; he reared a large family to men's estate, and saw them rank among the respected and esteemed; he has gone to his grave without a foe, falling like a shock fully ripe.

While a void has been left in the business ranks, and in the social circle, the example of the man still lives, teaching a lesson in favor of integrity and manliness which will not lose its good effect so long as the name of Richard Winslow is remembered.—Cleveland Herald 10th.

GUBERNATORIAL.—The New Lisbon Republican expresses a preference for the nomination of E. D. Holton, by the Republicans, but would be satisfied with either of the other candidates named.

The Omro Republican is in favor of the renomination of our present Governor, and says:

We want a Governor who is sound upon the Slavery question; one who will not shrink from manfully opposing all encroachments upon freedom's soil, as far as it may lie in his power.—Let such a man be nominated, and let him stand firm and square-footed upon the R publican platform, pledged to wield all the authority invested in the Executive in behalf of Truth and Right, should the Republican party triumph, and we have faith to believe that our cause will not be hopeless.—But who is the man for the times? We do not know of one more capable, or better fitted to fulfill the duties of Governor than the present incumbent, Coles Bashford.

The Portage City Record brings out a new name—that of John P. McGregor, Esq., of that city. It also mentions him as a proper candidate for Bank Comptroller. Mr. McGregor has never been connected closely with politics. He has resided a number of years in the State. His only appearance before the people for office, was when the people of Portage elected him, as their Mayor, without solicitation on his part, and contrary to his own wishes, last spring. We have known him for many years, as a sound lawyer, an accurate scholar, a thorough business man, and have always regarded him as one of the purest and most high-minded men in the State. On the great issues of the day, he is thoroughly and devotedly Republican; and we could support him and vote for him cordially for either of the offices mentioned, or for any other office in the State, for which the Republicans might see fit to nominate him, believing him eminently qualified to do credit to himself, to the party, and to the State as a public officer.—Madison Journal.

Magnificent Church Organ.

A most splendid and powerful organ has just been put up in the German Evangelist Lutheran Church in this city, which is pronounced by those who have heard it, to be of an uncommonly rich, melodious and beautiful tone.

The manual is four and a half octaves, and it has two octaves of pedals.

There are six full stops of fifty six notes each in the manuals, as follows: Open Diapason, Stop Diapason, Principal, Flute, Twelfth and Fifteenth.

The pedals have two stops, viz: Open Diapason and Stopped Diapason.

Making the whole number of pipes three hundred and seventy-six, of which seventeen are richly gilded and placed in five arches in the front of the organ, and the whole make a compass of nearly eight octaves.

The largest metal pipe is nearly eight feet long and two feet in circumference, and the largest wood pipe is eight feet long and nearly one foot square, and being stopped speaks a tone equal to a pipe sixteen feet long.

This organ has been built expressly for this church, under the direction of Mr. T. B. MASON, of Milwaukee, and for richness, evenness and volumn of tone is probably unequalled in the west.—Watertown Chronicle.

Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, August 10, 1857.

WARRANTS are issued from the Treasury to day for $25,9,200, in payment for the books taken by twenty four members of Congress, on their certificates and receipts. The accounts of one hundred and eighteen members remain unsettled.

The friends of Gen. BENNETT write from New York that the award by the Jackson Gold-box Committee was made under the management of Mayor Wood, and that the Common Council will reject it. This is a matter of such great consequence that the Administration will, it is thought, give it its undivided attention for some time to come.

Returns of the surveys of public lands in Kansas and Nebraska have been received at the General Land Office, embracing nearly four hundred thousand acres, situated in South Platte, Nemaha and Delaware districts, between the Platte and Kansas Rivers.

A TALENTED CONGRESS.—A correspondent of the Lowell Journal says: In looking over a list of the members of the Twenty-third Congress, which commenced December 2, 1833, and closed March 2, 1835, I was somewhat surprised at the number of members who have filled high positions under our Government. Six members of that Congress, J. Q. Adams, John Tyler, Polk, Fillmore, Pierce, and Buchanan, have occupied the Presidential chair. Five members, Messrs. Calhoun, Johnson, Tyler, Fillmore and King have been Vice Presidents; and no less than eight members, Messrs. John Q. Adams, Henry Clay, John Forsyth, Daniel Webster, John C. Calhoun, James Buchanan, John M. Clayton and Edward Everett have filled the office of Secretary of State. Thirty-two members have been Governors of States, and twenty-three members of the House have since served in the Senate.

DEATH OF A CONSUL.—Col. F. B. Ogden, U. S. Consul at Bristol, England, died on the 4th inst. He was appointed by Gen Jackson as Consul to Liverpool, where he served eleven years, and was then transferred to Bristol. Mr. Ogden was one of the pioneers of steam navigation. So early as 1811 he was attracted to it by the successful experiments of Mr. Fulton, and in 1816 constructed the first double engine expansive steamer. With the boat thus equipped, he was the first to venture on a sea voyage: he proceeded with her from New York to Norfolk, in Virginia, and established her as a packet on the James River.

AS GOOD AS GOING TO THE COUNTRY.—"Charles, love, won't you take me to the country this summer!" "No, my pet, I can't afford it—times are dull; but we will have the supply of water cut off and the gas stopped, and sleep up in the little fourth story back room; that will be a good imitation of fashionable hotel life in the country."

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT, AUGUST 13.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

James Hefferen, a peaceable looking fellow, was arrested for being drunk, in the 5th ward. He was very quiet and civil, though quite drunk, and gave the officers no trouble in arresting him, consequently his fine was but $1, whereas if he had resisted the officer, he would probably have been pretty roughly handled, and fined ten times the amount or more.

The Old Tune Again.—Frederick Denninger, a German printer, and an old Mexican soldier, who had just come out of jail, where he had been sent for ten days for drunkenness, went straight from the prison to the rum shop, and before he had enjoyed his liberty two hours he was again in the watch house. Poor old Denninger is a melancholy specimen of the millions of whiskey's victims. He was sent up for 30 days longer.

James Cannovan was brought up for beating his wife, and being otherwise disorderly. He has been up frequently for the same offence during the past year. His wife said that he was going away in the night to leave her and our children, without any money or means of support, but she was faster than he and locked the door. Whereupon he turned round and thrashed her, and then attempted to get out of the window, but she was equal to him here also, and just as he was about getting out she took him by the heels and held him there. About this time policeman O'Connor came along and, at her request, took Cannovan to the watch house. Justice Walworth remarked that as Cannovan seemed to be so desirous of getting away, he would give him an opportunity to travel. He said he would make his penalty $25, place an execution for six months in the hands of an officer for his arrest, (not suspecting that he had any money,) if he were found in the city "after to-day." Cannovan then very coolly paid his fine and left. No doubt he will soon be heard from again.

John Smith was brought up on a charge of using abusive language, and attempting to throw the Chestnut St. bridge tender into the river. Justice Walworth did not think the evidence strong enough to convict Smith, and he was discharged. The bridge tender stated that Smith had blocked up the river, and obstructed the navigation with a raft of timber, and the draw on the south side of the bridge, and that when he (the bridge tender) told him to take it away, he threatened to throw him in the river, & c.

Driving a Hack with no Lights at Night.—Christian Crouch was arrested and fined $5 for driving a hackney carriage at night without lamps.

The 5th section of the ordinance regulating Hackney Coaches, &c., says:—

"Every hackney coach, cab, omnibus or other carriage, when driven or used in the night, shall have fixed upon some conspicuous part of the outside of such vehicle, two lighted lamps, with plain glass fronts and sides, with the number of the license painted thereon with black paint, in figures not less than two inches in length, so that the, may be distinctly seen and known; and the owner or driver of such vehicle which shall be driven or used in the night without such lighted lamps shall severally forfeit the sum of five dollars."

We publish the above, because not more than one-half the hacks, &c., are provided with lamps, and the police have directions to enforce the ordinance strictly in future.

Exhibition of the Mil. waukee Horticultural Society.—The exhibition of this Society took place at Abbey Hall yesterday afternoon and evening, and although but few, comparatively, attended in the afternoon, yet this was fully made up by the large attendance in the evening, and no doubt all were highly pleased with what they saw, to say nothing of the music, eating and drinking. The exhibition was a very successful one, though the intolerably warm weather no doubt, kept many at home who would otherwise have attended.

The display was rich, and is no way inferior to any of the previous exhibitions of the Society. The assortment of vegetables and fruits was magnificent, and in the floral department what was lacked in the show of roses was more than made up for in dahlias, which were rich, rare and beautiful in the extreme. We have not space now to enumerate all that we saw and admired, and besides, if we had ever so much "space," the heat of the weather would not permit us to dwell more than five minutes on any subject.

Anderson, of Main street, was on hand with ice cream and other delicacies, and did his part towards keeping the folks cool.

Melancholy Accident—A Girl Burned to Death by the Explosion of a Camphene Lamp.—A young girl named Lena Raoh was so badly burned by the explosion of a camphene lamp on Wednesday night, at the house of Mr. Melms, in the 5th Ward, that she died yesterday morning, after suffering the most excruciating agony during the night. The girl was filling the lamp at the time, and somebody carelessly lit the wick while she was thus engaged, when it exploded, and the whole contents were thrown over her person, and in an instant she was completely enveloped in flames. Before the fire could be extinguished she was almost burned to a crisp.—She was a German girl about seventeen years of age, and was in the family of Mr. Melms as a hired girl. Her parents reside but a short distance from the house in which the accident occurred.

Passing an Altered Bill.—On Wednesday evening a young man who gave his name as Henry Webster, was arrested by Sheriff Page for offering an altered bill on the bank of Columbus, in payment for clothing, at the store of Zeltner & Bonne, East Water st.

The bill was altered from some low denomination to a 20, and was so skilfully done that it would deceive, unless carefully scrutinized. He came in on the Lake Shore R. R. that evening from Chicago, and had in his possession nearly three hundred dollars in good bills. Although the evidence against him is not very strong, yet the thing looks rather suspicious, and we are inclined to think that he is one of the sharp financiers so numerous in the west at the present time.

The Green Isles of the—River.—The prevailing high winds from the southerly points kept the Milwaukee river yesterday filled with acres of green islands, floated out of the Menomonee marsh.

There was a great chance for squatters on the island just below the Spring street bridge, and many were looking wishfully at the rushing green masses of vegetation.

Seriously, would it not be well for our Harbor Committee, to devise some means for towing these floating masses into the lake? We presume that it could be done with little difficulty. It may be cheaper to tow them out than to dredge them out.

An Injustice.—Messrs. Pierce, Caswell & Co., enterprising lumber merchants, who have done a great deal for the improvement of the lands lying near Cressan St. bridge, have been subjected to great annoyances by the bridge tender, whom they had offended by compelling him to remove a shanty from the street, owned by, a protestant. Was got through the Common Council at its last meeting, as it is said by his instigation, to compel Messrs. P. & C. to remove a raft of timber, which was represented as interfering with navigation. The fact is that the timber lies in a corner next the east end of the bridge, on the north side, and in no way interferes with navigation. It is about time that the bridge tender was looked after.

The Wisconsin Drug Warehouse.—A number of advertisements from this old and well known Drug establishment will be found in another column this morning. Messrs C. Harrington & Co., successors to S. Johnson, Jr., are the present proprietors, and most popular ones too are they becoming. Mr. John Dadd, one of the copartners, was for many years connected with the establishment as head clerk, and Mr. Barrington is also well known to the merchants of this State.

Everything in the Drug or Medicine line can be bought of them as cheap as anywhere in the west. They are doing a large wholesale business, and they particularly invite merchants to give them a call when they visit the city.

Military Excursion.—The Union Guards of this city leave to-night on a visit to Chicago, where they are to be the guests of the Washington and Highland Guards. We understand that the Milwaukee Light Guard will escort the Union Guards to the boat.

Information Wanted.—William A. Fuller, of La Grosse, left home on the night of July 7th, and has not since been heard from. He had on when he left, a light blue checked coat, and plaid pants, and was bareheaded. He is about thirteen years of age, with a full face, and rather heavy set. Any person who can give any information concerning him, will confer a favor by writing a line to Mrs. Catherine Fuller, La Grosse, Wis., or to the editors of the La Crosse Democrat.

Newspaper Establishment for Sale.—In our advertising columns will be found a notice of a Newspaper establishment for sale. The office is located in one of the most populous and thriving towns in our State, is doing a good business and is offered at a bargain.

The Warmest Days of the Season.—Yesterday and the day previous were decidedly the warmest days of the season. The thermometer stood at 96 during the greater part of Wednesday, and yesterday it ranged from 92 to 94 in the shade.

Comptrollers Office, Milwaukee, August 19, 1857.

Mr. Editor:

I herewith submit a statement of the account of James B. Cross, Mayor, with the city of Milwaukee, showing a balance to his credit of $29 841 70 100. This statement is made not only to exonerate the Mayor from the charges made against him, but in defence of the city whose credit might be injured were the charges permitted to go uncontradicted.

Every Bond that has been issued to the Mayor has been charged in Finance's, and all that have been sold, either by him or parties in the city of New York, have been accounted for to this office. So far as it regards the charge as to his having made from $6000 to $8000 per year in Exchange and Discount is wholly without foundation as the Books in this office will show and which are open to the inspection of all parties interested.

New Mode of Advertising.—Mr. Hawes, publisher of the "Western and Southern Catalogue and Stranger's Guide," will soon be in town, and will call in a day or two, for the purpose of procuring advertisements for the next edition, which will be ready for distribution about the 25th of September next.

The work will be printed in a neat and accurate form, on good paper, and well bound, containing three indexes, one for advertiser's names, one for the different cities and one for miscellaneous matter, thus giving patrons a rare opportunity of getting their advertisements before the public, as each subscriber is his own circulator of the work, according to the amount advertised.

Take Heed.—D. Tilton has returned to the Massasoit House, Chicago, where may be obtained Old Dr. James' wonderful and celebrated extract of Cornish's Indian,—its son-in-law, Dr. Thomas Tilton, will supply you with either, personally or by Express. It is a sure and speedy cure of the worst cases of consumption, bronchitis, asthma, nervous debility, coughs, colds and sore throats.—We know this to be a fact. Try it and live

P. S.—By addressing Dr. Tilton a note through the Chicago Post Office, inclosing four stamps, (12 cents), a receipt of cure will be sent in return, free of charge, to any part of the Union.

Milwaukee Market.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, MILWAUKEE, Aug. 14, 1857.

Wheat—receipts very light, and very little doing.—Shippers are hardly ready to operate much in the present state of eastern markets, and the supply is not enough to set them at work if they were anxious. We continue our quotations at 1,16@1,25 for spring, and 1,23a 1,25 for red and white winter, millers taking the best samples at outside figures.

Barley—coming in quite freely, and selling at 62a80, according to quality.

Corn—74a75—retail 80c.

Oats—60@64.

Rye—sales to a small ex ent at 95@1,00.

Potatoes—plenty, and selling at 87½@90.

Butter—18@20.

Hides—plenty and trade brisk at the late advance.—Green in good condition bring 5a6c, and dry, salted and flint, trimmed, 10a20.

Corn—Under favorable advices from New York offers became more at 73c, and holders insisted upon 74c, at which a cargo was reported sold. We quote it firm 73 @74 in buyers.

Oats—New lots were in the market—though under the preference of livery stables for cut as the most hearty prices of the latter were from 10 to be higher than the latter, 29,200 bu of old sold in store at 56. In bags delivered; they were worth 60c. New in bags 56a58.

Barley—is dull at 6 @65.

Rye—steady at 80@85 for new.—Press.

By Magnetic Telegraph.

Canadian flour a shade firmer—sales 700 bbls at 6,50a6,60 for superfine, and 6,90a8,75 for extra.

Oats plenty at 62a64 for state, 64 65½ for western.

Whiskey heavy; sales 900 bbls Ohio and Prison at 30 —small lots 29½.

Pork—better; sales 2200 bbls at 14,50a14,75 for mess, 12 for prime mess, 19,50a19,60 for prime.

Wheat and Lumber at Racine.—The Racine Advocate says:

Few persons, perhaps, are aware how much of an increase has been given, both to the export and import trade of Racine, since the completion of the Railroad to Beloit. That a little idea may be formed, we subjoin the imports and exports of wheat and lumber for corresponding months of last year and this, as taken from the Collector's books, viz:

Bushels of wheat exported during the 8 months ending July 31st, 1856..... 70,955
Corresponding months 1857..... 224,121
Feet of Lumber received during the 8 months ending July 31st, 1856..... 11,861,000
Corresponding month in 1857..... 21,699,000

This gives an increase of wheat exported during the 8 months, 248,886 bushels; and of Lumber imported, 10,-228,000 feet.

Mineral Pt. Railroad.—Shipped last week: 1,703 pigs (169,750 lbs) Lead, 911 Bx Hide-; 36 bbls Crackers—Received last week: 141,000 lbs Ore; 88 0 0 shingles; 3,0 0 Laths; 2 Threshing Machines; 1 R-aper and Mower; 10 Packing Mills; 18,850 lbs Merchandize.—Democrat.

Point au Pelee Light.—The caisson for this light house was placed in its position on Saturday last, the 8th inst. It was towed down from Malden by the U. S steamer Michigan and tug Rescue. It was superintended and manned by the Union. The caisson is a frame of timber, put strongly together in an octagonal form, and is 64 feet diameter at its base, 80 feet high, and has now in it some 600 tons masonry. A large common lamp will be placed upon it for the present, until the towers, which will be 70 feet high, can be built. Vessels can pass within 200 feet. Mr. Scott, Chief Engineer of the Board or Works, Canada, is the projector and master spirit of the enterprise, and in all sorts of discouragements and predictions that he would not succeed, has pursued his object till all difficulties are overcome, and the light-house will stand a permanent monument of his superior ability, on account of its peculiarity and great strength of construction.

LESSONS IN Foreign Languages.

MR. AND MRS. L. S. B. DE CRETY, late from Paris, for four years past instructors in foreign languages in Milwaukee, have the honor to inform the public that they will form classes in the French, Italian and Spanish languages on the 1st of September next. The course of instruction will be according to the age and acquirements of the pupils, and the classes kept entirely separate, their house being arranged with that view.
Gentlemen and ladies who begin to speak either of these languages, can receive lessons in Reading and Conversation, Mr. DE CRETY furnishing books of the best French authors. Those too wishing to learn vocal music in either of those languages, will find a competent music teacher in the establishment.
The hours of instruction will be from 8 to 11 o'clock A. M., and from 2 to 5 P. M., And in the evening from half past 6 to 8, for conversation.
Mr. DE CRETY will also give lessons in French, Spanish and Italian, at his office, to gentlemen only, from 7 to 10 o'clock in the evening, and in lessons in Fencing, the use of the Sword, and all military exercises. Persons of delicate constitution and feeble temperament, as also those confined to their sedentary and engaged in sedentary pursuits, will derive from these exercises, improvement in their health, acquire strength in their limbs and find an agreeable recreation.
Mr. DE CRETY will also form similar classes for children, from 10 to 15 years old, at his house, or office, as parents may prefer. Fathers and mothers who desire to see their children strong, active and robust, can judge for themselves, after a few weeks trial, as to the effect of these different exercises upon their health.
The continued patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

To MERCHANTS.—Mr. DE CRETY will take charge of French correspondence to all the principal cities of France and will procure all Price Currents that they may want.
